Not illustrated. 1853 Excerpt: ...well. "This last illness of mine shews me how in one moment we may be taken away. Oh to be always ready for a dying hour!--to be 'found in Him!' Then, come the summons when it may, we are ready. I often think how much need I must have of our Father's loving rod, for I am so often laid low. Will you ask that this chastening may be for my profit, that I may be partaker of His holiness 1 But I must tell you how I got ill. About a fortnight ago I had such a severe fit of toothache that I was obliged to have a tooth taken out; well, I got it out on the Monday, and it stopped bleeding for two hours, but about three o'clock it began bleeding again, and from that time till nearly ten on Tuesday night it bled violently. Only think of me bleeding for thirty hours! The doctor could not stop it for some time, and I got so weak with loss of blood and want of food and sleep, that I nearly fainted, and poor R had to go at ten o'clock at night with the doctor to E, to bring another doctor, for the one here said, if it did not stop I might sink in a moment, and that I would not survive another night. I did not know there was any danger, or I should have been alarmed. R did not tell me till next day, when I was out of danger. It makes me start when I think how near I was of entering on the unseen realities of eternity. Oh that the worthless life that God has spared may be spent in His service! Pray much, dear one, that this illness may be blest. I am very much afraid that I, in my folly and desperate wickedness, may let it pass unimproved. I have not had the presence of Jesus in this illness;--scarcely at all; indeed that has been my greatest trial. It has been a fortnight of great bodily weakness, and very great depression of soul, but still 'He doeth all things well,'...
