“Idyll: An extremely happy, peaceful, or picturesque episode or scene, typically an idealized or unsustainable one.”

As the “Pretty Little Liars” television series prepares to make a time jump, the love story of high school girls Emily and Paige takes a leap of its own in Emmy winning writer Joseph Dougherty’s best selling alternative history of the characters. The fifth story, set in the summer of 1970, finds Emily and Paige reunited after college and starting a loving, but hidden, life together.

Passionate and tantalizing, this wandering romantic idyll tells of one long summer night, filled with memories sweet and bitter. "Ghosts on the Lawn" is an intimate read that takes you deeper into the hearts of these remarkable young women, in the same distinctive style that led to the author’s "The Persistence of Phosphors" being selected the AfterEllen Visibility Award Best Book of 2013.
