Post WWII Nashua Through Korea: A Sequel Ronald Dube

As a follow-up to his warmly received debut book, Nashua Area Men and Women in World War II, author Ronald Dube shares another remarkable collection of war stories and accounts told to him by his fellow Nashuan war veterans from both WWII and, primarily, the Korean War. With candor and meticulous attention to detail, Post WWII Nashua Through Korea paints an intimate portrait of what life was like for those who served. In between these stories, Dube includes details of the local and national developments and events that affected the everyday life of Nashua residents during this period in time. A mesmerizing work for readers of all ages, Post WWII Nashua Through Korea serves as a touching tribute to Nashuan war veterans, while also preserving an important historical record for future generations of Nashuan citizens.
