YES, CHEF (A Bad Boy Romance): Taking the Heat E.M. Smart

"My kitchen is not a kind place"

Blade Gentry worked his way up from poverty to become the hottest chef in the city. He demands nothing but perfection from those around him and he always gets what he wants.

And what he wants now is her.

Katherine Hogarth is young and vivacious with a strong need to prove herself as his newest assistant. She responds to his harshness with an eagerness to please, and he can't wait to see if her submissive streak continues into the bedroom.

When she finds out her fiancé is cheating on her with her co-worker, all bets are off. Her boss and his commanding tone has awoken something within her, and in a night of passion, she succumbs to her desires. As outside forces conspire against them, they both have to decide what they're willing to sacrifice for love.
