Jesus Called - He Wants His Church Back: What Christians and the American Church are Missing
Ray Johnston

As early as 50 AD, Christians had gotten away from knowing who Jesus really is. Our generation is no different.

In every decade we, as Americans, lost something important that we couldn't afford to lose:

- In the 1950's, we lost innocence
- In the 1960's, we lost respect for authority
- In the 1970's, we lost love
- In the 1980's, we lost values
- In the 1990's, we lost faith
- In the 2000's, we lost security
- In the 2010's, we lost hope in the future

What can restore what we've lost? Only Jesus. Jesus gave us His name, His friendship, and a commission to accept responsibility for ourselves and for the world. When introduced to His words and ways we'll rediscover the Jesus who:

- Wants His enemies won over, not wiped out
- Wants you to stop playing it safe
- Believed great things were possible no matter what things are like right now
- Was full of grace and truth
- Unleashed compassion
- Believed no one was too far from God to return to Him
- Came to seek and to save that which was lost
- Loves the church

Pastor Ray Johnston shares the Jesus of the Bible and how we can be Christians without being jerks. He reveals how the radical message of the gospel calls us to love and serve not only our neighbors but our enemies as well. That's the Jesus the American Church has missed and needs to meet.

Jesus' mission is clear—risk everything in order to take care of people, starting in our home, neighborhoods, cities, and those in need around the world. That's the Jesus the American Church has missed and needs to meet.
