Excerpt

My bag had barely hit the floor before he was on me.

"God I missed you." He hugged me tight, long fingers squeezing my butt.

I laughed. "It's only been two days, Joe."

"Two very long days." He kissed my neck, sucking on the skin above where my pulse pounded. "I almost died from loneliness."

"Uh huh. Poor you, all alone with your band and manager and groupies and interviews and paparazzi and-" My list making ended abruptly I noticed Joe was only wearing a towel and the part of him swelling between us proved how much he really had missed me. His hands made their way down the back of my jeans. The gentle scrape of his calloused fingers on my bare skin took every thought out of my mind, leaving only desire.

Joe kissed me hungrily, sucking at my lips and tongue as if he'd been starved for the taste of me. I sank into the warm heat of his mouth and let my hands roam his body, relearning the long, lean muscles and all the places that made him groan.

I yanked the towel free and let it fall to the floor. Joe pulled back just long enough to lift my shirt off, throwing it to the other end of the room where it would no doubt join an already massive pile of his clothes on the floor. We were going to need to have a conversation about his excessively slobbish ways, but now - with his tongue snaking inside my bra towards a nipple - was really not the time.

I bit my lip and arched my back as he sucked my nipple into his mouth, teasing the stiffening nub with his teeth. I fumbled to remove my bra completely and he helped brush the straps from my shoulders without releasing me from his mouth.

My whole body warmed under his touch and I rushed to unbutton my jeans.

"Why are you wearing so many clothes," he asked, voice silky and low.

"Why aren't you wearing any?"

Joe grinned, his dazzlingly blue eyes flashing. "I'd planned to get all clean and fresh-smelling for you but I overslept. So now you'll just have to join me in the shower and lend a hand."
