David, You're Blind!: "We can't take care of you..." David Wermuth

" In his book Suddenly Blind author David Wermuth gave us readers a glimpse into his life and his extremely difficult times. We read about his addictions, relationship problems, and family disfunctions leading to his becoming blind. But you, the readers, requested more details and insights about his dark journey into sightlessness. In this new book, David, You're Blind, David addresses those requests and delves deeper into his lightless world and how he learned to cope, and eventually, conquer it. His trials and many errors are presented in the same, factual voice that he used to write his first novel. This new book is filled with failures and successes, and shows the reader that an iron will and strength of purpose can overcome most of life's difficulties."
