Wounded Angel Susan M Kirkland

Magan Doyle is convicted of murder and sentenced to a life term in prison. A sensational confession brings about her complete exoneration and she is returned to an unforgiving society. A handsome financial settlement frees her to seek a new life, but the stain of prison, a rape, and emotional injury test her resilience and character. She discovers a supportive and loving father she never knew, and through the beauty and innocence of children, learns to love and trust again. Megan proves to be a woman of strength and intelligence, growing beyond the limiting bonds of society. Here is a story of struggle and pain and a valiant life tenderly laid open for us.
