Lying In Bed

M. J. Rose

Lying In Bed M. J. Rose

Once upon a time, Marlowe Wyatt abandoned herself to the unrestrained pleasures of love. Bold and unashamed, she gave herself over to her lover without inhibition.

Until she was betrayed.

Now Marlowe earns a living composing love letters for clients incapable of communicating desire -- erotic fantasies she creates with her head, but never her heart, deliberately disconnected from her passionate core.

But her newest client is about to change everything.

From the moment they meet, Gideon Brown ignites in Marlowe an overpowering hunger -- and a vulnerability she thought she'd vanquished. The chemistry that sizzles between them soon inspires Marlowe's best work, sensations and desires long held in check that sweep her toward the brink of surrender.

But who is the mysterious recipient of Gideon's letters?

And how long can Marlowe's fear hold back their undeniable passion?
