Anne Levy's Last Case Barbara Sattler

Anne Levy's life is falling apart. Her boss wants to fire her, her ex has announced his marriage and a secret threatens her career. Has she tried her last case? Anne is a fifty-year-old public defender often outspoken, a workaholic, an office star. But times change. Elizabeth Elan, her new younger boss, aka Double E, threatens to fire her for being old school and burned out. She has two weeks to change or resign. The novel flashes back between the first degree murder trial of sixteen-year-old Emily Nelson accused of the premeditated murder of a prominent businessman to the present as Anne visits terrified clients at the jail, battles arrogant prosecutors and egotistical judges all the while terrified her career will end, her reputation ruined if her secret is revealed.
