Incident at the Lake: A Northern Journey (part two) Geoffrey Peyton

Part two of my northern journey on the west coast of Britain. This time I am in the heart of the Lake District where I revisit some old stamping grounds before deciding on a few days in the small seaside town of Silloth, on the Solway Firth. here I make the choice of staying at a campsite, rather than the usual choice of random camping. This would be my last adventure in the wilds of Britain before I take up the reins again in 2001.
