Carl Gillipsy is a thirty-six-year-old billionaire oil tycoon that everyone expects to hate. He's rich, white and not exactly the friendliest fellow in a small southern town. However, when he meets a sassy black cowgirl named Tonya Abrams, he quickly meets his match. Tonya is as tough as nails and has an edgy attitude that Carl can't resist, he always being an admirer of strong-minded women.

But Tonya is hiding a shocking secret. In her other nighttime persona, she's a submissive, caring and very desperate "Mail Order Bride", looking for an international husband to take her away from small town life to a life of luxury.

Sure enough, Carl learns her secret, but the rest of the story isn't all roses and champagne. This is a western romance with elements of comedy and drama. It's a story about human connection between two lost souls, even with a geyser of secrets holding the heart back.
