The Inn at Misty Lake: Book Two in the Misty Lake Series (Volume 2) Margaret Standafer

Susan Taylor needs a fresh start. Tired of Chicago and especially of her job at a posh hotel, she figures she's found the perfect solution to her problems in Misty Lake. Converting an abandoned farmhouse into a bed and breakfast means she will finally have the chance to be the one calling the shots. Riley McCabe has his doubts about the project Susan proposes. As a contractor, it's hard to refuse a long-term, good-paying job, but the house has so many problems, he's convinced it would be smarter to just tear it down. However, he quickly learns that when Susan makes up her mind, it's awfully hard to change it. When Riley's past suddenly becomes his present, Susan is forced to fight for her inn, her life, and the man she is hoping will be part of her future.
