Bluejackets Manual 18th Edition 1968 The US Naval Institute

This manual mainly serves two types of Navyman. First is the recruit-new to the Navy, he has here a handbook of basic knowledge about his new profession. Backing up his on duty instruction, his off duty study of the Bluejackets Manual will help make him a well informed, confident and productive blue jacket. Second is the long service Navyman-the man who is advancing into the area where he must use his military and general navy knowledge more than ever before. Whether he be a PO3rd or CPO, he will find between the covers of this manual the most complete and up to date collection of such key information.
