Willows Weeping Ella Reigns

"Sometimes taking a stand leaves a person standing alone. The life we're born into and our surroundings can consume us. It's challenging and sometimes even painful to fight for what we want when we're up against losing battles. However, not taking a stand can eat you alive from the inside out. Believing in yourself, holding true to who you are, and never giving up adds character and makes you strong."

"...wrenching, powerful personal reflection of past, present and future, documenting the survival process in a manner that will be familiar and inspiring to any who come from a stifling, unsupportive family in search of achievement and success. - The essence of a life well lived against all odds is what makes Willows Weeping an ultimate success story." ? D. Donovan, eBook Reviewer, Midwest Book Review

"The author's writing skills are amazing and the story she tells is unlike any other!" A Simple Taste for Reading

Willows Weeping is Ella Reigns' enthralling memoir about surviving foster care, a mentally ill mother, an abusive father, adultery, rape, abortion and a controlling marriage which lead to divorce. This is a true story boiled with raw emotional survival instincts.

The predators whom were once prey, were trying to raise a family, while Ella Reigns tries to escape them. Her journey into adulthood with their negative presence in her life, however, leads her to strength and emotional freedom for the sake of her children and breaking the futile cycle of violence.
